JUST IMAGINE YOURSELF HERE

Howe Island is an island community serviced by two ferries with easy access to Gananoque and Kingston. It's home to those who appreciate an exceptional quality of life. Very few places that we travel to ever come close to the feeling that you will come to love about living here. This would be the perfect location for a young family, professionals and retirees. Whether this will be your main home, cottage or just one of your properties around the world; you will always crave to be back.
